MRS. BASIL W. DUKE

Dies While Asleep.--Sister Of The Famous General John Morgan.

Mrs. Henrietta Morgan Duke, formerly of Lexington, wife of General Basil Duke, sister of the famous Confederate cavalry leader, General John H. Morgan, and one of the most prominent and best beloved women of Kentucky, died in Louisville Tuesday night. Mrs. Duke was found dead in bed at her home Wednesday morning, supposedly from heart trouble.

Mrs. Duke's last visit to Lexington was in January, when she came to confer with members of the Daughters of the Confederacy relative to the Morgan monument.

Besides her husband, General Duke, who is perhaps the most distinguished survivor of General Morgan's old command, Mrs. Duke is survived by several children: Mrs. Wilbur Mathews, of New York, formerly Miss Currie Duke, the noted violinist; Mrs. Charles Ray, of Franklin, Mass.; Mrs. Samuel Duke; Dr. Calvin Duke, Basil Duke, Jr., and Henry Duke, of Louisville. One other daughter, Mrs. Sidney Ballou, formerly Miss Fannie Duke, died in Honolulu, leaving one child. Two brothers, Col. R. C. Morgan and Col. Charlton Morgan, both of Lexington, and one sister, Mrs. Catherine G. Forsythe, who formerly lived in Lexington, but who now resides in Virginia, also survive. Other near Lexington relatives are John H. Morgan, son of Calvin C. Morgan, a nephew, Mrs. James H. Mulligan, a cousin, and Major Alex G. Morgan, also a cousin. She was also related to the Hunts and other prominent Kentucky families.

The funeral service was held Thursday afternoon in Louisville and interment took place Friday morning in Lexington cemetery.

Physicians Say Hospitals For Insane Are a Disgrace.

The Insane Asylums of Kentucky came in for condemnation at the Kentucky Medical Association's session. Dr. Curran Pope, of Louisville, said that the asylums for the insane in Kentucky are a disgrace, and that while it has had examples set for the past twenty years of modern treatment of the insane, Kentucky has failed to take advantage. He said the asylums were relics of barbarism and dark ages.

PROTECTION

Of Innocent Women And Children Of Future.--Will Urge Bill Before The Next Legislature.

In order that innocent women shall be protected and future generations spared the "sins of their fathers," shall urge upon the next Legislature a bill substantially as follows:

Section 1. Each male person applying for a license to marry in this Commonwealth shall submit himself to a physical examination by a competent physician, who shall be appointed by the County Judge for that purpose, and, before said license shall be issued to him, the physician making said examination shall state in writing under oath that he is not related by blood or marriage to the applicant, add that said applicant is not infested with any venereal disease. The fee to said physician for said examination shall be one dollar, and shall be paid by said applicant. Each County Judge shall act, and every two years thereafter appoint one or more physicians to make the examinations required herein.

Section 2. If any physician shall make a false statement he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years; and if any clerk shall issue any marriage license before the examination of the applicant and the filing of the sworn statement, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

No discussion of the merits of this proposed legislation is necessary. Every intelligent reader knows that it ought to become a law. To make it law public opinion must be molded in its favor. This is a work for the respectable citizens of the State. Let every man and woman, every respectable society, and every church organization sign a petition requesting the passage of this bill.

I should be pleased to have the opinion of men and women from all parts of the State.

Respectfully submitted,
HUBERT MEREDITH,
Greenville, Ky.

SMOOTH SCHEME

For Swindling Hotels--Lexington Detectives Warned.

Lexington detectives have been warned to be on the lookout for one of the smoothest criminals in the East who is thought to be in this section of the United States. The man swindles hotels and at present time is wanted at Washington. The scheme is to register at a hotel and after he has apparently established credit he will go out and soon the clerk of the hotel will be summoned to the telephone. The "guest" will then tell him that he has bought a suit of clothes and that they are to be delivered "C. O. D." He asks the clerk to pay for them if they are delivered while he is out. Of course the suit is delivered while he is "out" and the clerk pays the delivery boy. The guest fails to return to the hotel and on opening the box containing the suit it is found to contain nothing but old papers.

BRIBERS IN ELECTION.

Recipient of Money a Competent Witness Against Man Who Buys a Vote.

Hoping to prevent the use of money at elections, a bill changing the present law concerning bribery has been prepared by Judge T. L. Blakey, Assistant Attorney General. The bill will be introduced in the Senate by Senator A. R. Burnam, of Richmond. The most important provision of the new bill makes the man who receives the bribe a competent witness against the man who offers the bribe.

THE PROPOSED BILL.

The chief sections are:
First—Every person who promises, offers, gives or causes or procures to be promised, offered or given any money or other things of value, or makes or tenders any contract, undertaking, obligation, gratuity or security for the payment of money, or for the delivery or conveyance of anything of value to any voter, with intent to influence his vote at any election, primary or political convention, shall be confined in the penitentiary for a period of not less than one nor more than five years.

Second—The voter so influenced shall be guilty of no offense, and no prosecution shall be instituted against him, but said voter shall be a competent witness against the party or parties so influencing or offering to influence his vote.

Cornwallis' Surrender Observed.

On the historic ground where Lord Cornwallis 128 years ago sealed the doom of Britain's rule over what is now a part of the United States, patriotic Americans gathered at Yorktown, Va., on Oct. 19 to celebrate the anniversary of the famous surrender. The inaccessibility of the place made the attendance comparatively small. The school children of Yorktown and surrounding counties marched to the great monument erected at Yorktown.

Until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at F. C. Duerson's drug store, I did not find anything that would prove of benefit to me. I was soon well and strong and now am entirely free from kidney trouble. I am pleased to give Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

It Was The Tide.

"It was a mistake," said Mayor Story, of Atlantic City, discussing a recent governmental difficulty. "These people failed to understand the difficulty, just as a man from Okoboji, in Iowa, failed last week to understand the tides."

"This man sat on the beach, close to the water, munching a bag of peanuts. A fat lady, one of the end-of-the-season bathers, gamboled in the waves near him. She shrieked, hopped up and down, and flapped about with arms and legs, and meanwhile the waves crept nearer and nearer the Okoboji peanut-eater."

He regarded the advancing water sternly. All of a sudden a stronger wave than usual swept up the beach, and—splash—the man was dashed with spray.

"Hi!" he shouted, scowling blackly at the happy bather, "hi, fatty! stop that there bobbin' about before ye drown a feller, will ye?"
